ABOUT ARMY LAW COLLEGE PUNE

Army Law College, Pune was established in July 2018 with a noble objective of imparting quality legal education to the children of our brave, patriotic & selfless Army personnel. The College is governed and managed by Army Welfare Education Society (AWES), which is non-profit organization, registered under the Societies Registration Act XXI of 1860, since 29 April 1983. The Army Law College is the most recent professional college to be established in Pune under AWES. The location of the college is serene and ideal for educational institute. ALC is well connected by national highway and local train.

Army Law College, Pune is affiliated to “Savitribai Phule Pune University” (SPPU) which is among the top state universities with consistent NAAC A+ grade. Army Law College, Pune is approved by the Bar Council of India and Government of Maharashtra. It offers five- years integrated B.B.A, LL. B & B.A. LL.B. programs each with a student intake of 60 seats (exclusively for children of Army personnel).

The institution originated with the donation of initial campus and buildings by Dr. Prem Daryanani, Managing Trustee of Radha Kalyandas Daryanani Charitable Trust, has now developed into a 14-acer educational hub with the state-of-the-art academic infrastructure. Ample facilities for sports, hobbies and extracurricular activities exists on the campus for holistic development of the students. The College also has NSS & NCC sub-units.

ABOUT SYMPOSIUM ON "PATHWAYS TO SUCCESS FOR ASPIRING LAWYERS IN THE CONTEMPORARY ERA"

In the dynamic landscape of legal practice, the interface between academia and industry is crucial for ensuring the relevance and effectiveness of legal education. Recognizing this, the Internship and Placement Cell of Army Law College, Pune is organising a symposium for the effective implementation of a Corporate-Campus Interface. This Program is tailored specifically for Bachelor of Business Administration and Bachelor of Legislative Law (BBALLB) students. This program aims to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application, providing students with invaluable insights and experiences that will enhance their professional development and employability in the legal domain.

Objetives of the Symposium are:

- To facilitate meaningful interactions between BBALLB students and corporate legal professionals.
- To expose students to real-world legal challenges and scenarios encountered in corporate settings.
- To provide students with opportunities for skill development, networking, and mentorship.
- To foster collaboration between academia and industry for the mutual benefit of students and organization.
